

First Presbyterian Church

16 Leon Sullivan Way

Charleston, WV 25301

IT HAPPENS
RIGHT HERE

STANDING TOGETHER AGAINST THE SEX TRAFFICKING INDUSTRY

First Presby's

Human Trafficking Awareness Event

April 24, 2018

6:30p.m.

Come and learn about how human trafficking effects our community and what you can do to help!

Human Trafficking Awareness Event

Tuesday, April 24, 2018

6:30-7:30 p.m.- Program (main sanctuary)

7:30-8:00 p.m.- Reception & Resources

IT HAPPENS
RIGHT HERE

STANDING TOGETHER AGAINST THE SEX TRAFFICKING INDUSTRY

Hosted by First Presbyterian Church of Charleston
at 16 Leon Sullivan Way, Charleston, WV 25301

This event is free and open to the public.

Featured Speakers:

- Angie Conn, She Who Dares, survivor, leader, and advocate
- Dr. Patrick L. Kerr, WVU/CAMC Behavioral Health Medicine, mental health on human trafficking
- Trooper Rachel Gross, WV State Police Cyber Bullying and Internet Safety Expert

Theatrical vignettes from the musical, Sins of a Savior, written by Amanda Bridgette will be presented by local actors and musicians.

The purpose of this event is to raise awareness and provide education and opportunities to help fight human trafficking right here in West Virginia.

For more information, call 304-343-8961 or visit www.firstpresby.com